PROSPECTS IN RUSSIA.

A Gigantic Field For American Enterprise and Capital.

TRANS-SIBERIA RAILROAD.

Highways From Western Europe to the Pacific Coast Will Cause a Commercial Revolution—Modern Trains Out of Moscow.

Washington, July 10.—Mr. Herbert D. Pierce, first secretary of the United States embassy to Russia, has been in Washington several days on leave of absence from his post.

It has afforded an opportunity for talks with the president and state department officials of the Russian affairs, both political and commercial, and the imparting of much interesting information which could not be brought by the channels of official report.

Speaking to a representative of the press, Mr. Pierce said the relations between the United States and Russia were never on a more cordial basis than at present and the friendship which is traditional between the two countries finds constant expression in Russia not only among officials but also among the people of all classes.

It is not too much to say that from the emperor down to the peasantry there is a sincere friendship for us and a desire to become acquainted with American methods and to make use in Russia of the skill and ingenuity which has advanced this country with such great strides. For this reason there is a great opening in Russia for American capital and for the introduction of American machinery and methods of doing business.

It is an immense field far beyond anything realized by the people in this country. Russia is just entering an era of tremendous prosperity; a sort of commercial and industrial awakening.

Here is the new field for American enterprise and capital, for, with our Pacific coast facilities, the Philippines and the trans-Siberian railroad route, there is ready access for our goods into the very heart of Russia.

During his ministry to Russia, Mr. Hitchcock's personality and splendid business ability did much to stimulate our trade relations and the effect is widespread and continuous. There is special opportunity for investments in steel or iron industries, cotton mills and for the manufacture of machinery and tools.

Although Russia has protective tariff which is encouraging her own industries, still she wants many of our manufactured goods, such as steel rails, as the home production is far short of sufficient to supply the present state of development.

"People outside of Russia hardly realize how nearly completed the Trans-Siberia railway is," continued Mr. Pierce. "I was told recently by Prince Hilkoff, minister of ways of communication, who has charge of this great work, that he expected to make a trip around the world in 40 days during the coming exposition, going by the way of Trans-Siberian route, and he had the kindness to ask me to accompany him on the trip. Even now the route is almost continuous from Moscow to the Amoor river and thence to Vladivostok on the Pacific coast, with the exception of a comparatively short stretch which has to be covered marks almost a commercial revolution, giving a highway from western Europe to the Pacific and thence to eastern Europe.

The road is so well along that trains are run out of Moscow which would astonish even Americans as models of elegance. These trains have not only baths, libraries and other modern equipments, but a complete gymnasium to beguile the long trip through Siberia. The original purpose of Russia was to make the route one for military strategic purposes, linking the capital and other large centers with the naval rendezvous at Vladivostok. But now commerce and travel over the route has quite overshadowed the strategic purpose, and Russia finds that she has opened a highway which is to be one of the great channels of the world's traffic. In time possibly the route will be diverted southward through Chinese Manchuria to permit a terminus at Russia's new and important lease hold at Port Arthur. But at present Vladivostok continues to be considered its commercial terminus.

Buildings Burned.

Milwaukee, July 10.—Fire at Montello, Wis., a bamlet on the Wisconsin Central railway destroyed 12 buildings, including one jewelry store, two grocery stores, three saloons, one hotel, one barber shop, one tailor shop and three vacant buildings. The fire started from an explosion of gasoline.

EMILE ZOLA

Makes a Statement In Reference to the Dreyfus Case.

New York, July 10.—A dispatch signed by Emile Zola says: "Positively I will not write of the Dreyfus case for any newspaper whatsoever, at least, not until the coming trial is over. What I had to say I have said. I consider that I am no longer needed. I withdraw.

"I learn that a man in New York boasts that he has a contract with me to write a play about Dreyfus. Another man talks of my making a lecture tour through the United States.

"I learn, too, that certain newspapers have recently published articles signed with my name and are announcing that they will publish other articles by me. All such statements are absolutely impositions. I have never authorized these statements nor the publication of these articles.

"When I raised my voice for Dreyfus I merely desired to rally the defenders of justice, then busy elsewhere, to draw attention to a crime the accomplishing of which was not to be tolerated.

"I am glad I did it because the agitation probably saved an innocent man; because it proved invaluable in educating the masses; because this revision marks the entrance of the moral idea into politics, where principle is constantly sacrificed to immediate expediency and mutual toleration. Such a sacrifice, in the long run, is ruinous to any nation.

"I am glad I did it. Should occasion arise I should enter politics again. Now my ideas on these subjects are in the hands of better leaders of men than I am. These leaders are amply able to make the ideas to fructify in this beloved, generous France.

"Having no doubt these ideas will bear fruit in America, too, I cannot see how any articles, lectures, especially bow any bad melodramas I could contribute to the discussion would help the work.

"Therefore, despite what has been said, I have none but a literary ambition. I now return to purely literary labor."

Wife Held For Murder.

Erie, Pa., July 10.—Clarence E. Shattuck, one of the proprietors of a billiard room at Four Mile creek, near here, was shot and killed and his body placed on the tracks of the Erie motor line. His wife, Ella Shattuck, is locked up in the Erie police station charged with murdering him. An examination of the body by Coroner Steinmetz disclosed the fact that the man had been shot in the head, arm and back. It is stated that two bicyclists, who were on the roadway in the neighborhood, heard a cry of "murder" twice before the shots were fired and that they saw a woman hurry down towards the mouth of the creek.

Will Have a Telephone.

Frankfort, Ky., July 10.—Manchester, Clay county, famous by reason of the Baker-White feud, is to have telephone connection with the outside world. Articles of incorporation were filed here for the London, Livingston & Manchester Telephone company with a capital stock of $1,000. Clay is one of the oldest of mountain counties, but is completely cut off from civilization, not having a mile of railroad, telegraph or even of ordinary turnpike.

A Revolution Threatened.

San Francisco, July 10.—Leading citizens of Guatemala just arrived on the steamer San Juan confirm the reports that a revolution is threatened in that country. A prominent planter now here said: "The inflated currency, combined with the surplus production of coffee, explains the conditions. Of late years every bit of arable land has been used for the growth of coffee, with the result that there is overproduction."

Comments of Russian Papers.

St. Petersburg, July 10.—The Russian newspapers generally devote much attention to the telegrams exchanged between Emperor William of Germany and President Loubet. The Novoe Vremya says: "It is a noteworthy occurrence and President Loubet may rejoice at something like a fortuitous Kronstadt having taken place during his government."

Rev. Barrow Killed.

Glendale, Ky., July 10.—The Rev. J. T. Barrow, pastor of the Elizabethtown Baptist church was instantly killed here by being struck by the engine of the Bowling Green accommodation as he was attempting to cross the track in front of it to reach the platform. He had preached here and was about to take a train for home when he was killed.

KILLED IN A SMASHUP

Fatal Collision Between an Excursion and Freight Train.

THREE WOMEN LOSE LIVES.

Horrible Accident Occurs to a Special Bearing Delegates to the National Educational Convention—The Names of the Victims.

Stockton, Cal., July 10.—A special train of nine coaches filled with teachers on the way to Los Angeles to attend the National Educational association convention, crashed into a freight train within 300 yards of the depot at Newman, Stanislaus county.

Three ladies were killed and 12 passengers injured.

The list of killed: Miss Addie Harris and Mrs. Elizabeth White, both of St. Louis; Mrs. Lena Hammond, Seneca Falls, N. Y.

With the exception of Robert Mills, who was injured about the head, none of the injuries are serious.

The train was going at the rate of 40 miles an hour and the freight train was taking water on the main track. The freight train took fire and an empty coach, four flat cars were burned.

There were no baggage cars between the locomotive of the special and the tourist sleeper, so that when the crash came the tender of the locomotive telescoped the sleeper, killing the two women in the forward berth, and injuring 13 other occupants of the same car. None of the other coaches left the track.

About Jamaican Duties.

London, July 10.—In the house of commons the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, answering a question on the subject of the Jamaican situation, said a provisional reciprocity convention had been made with the United States in behalf of Jamaica. The particulars, he added, had not yet been received, but it was understood that the general effect of the convention would result in import duties in the United States being reduced on sugar and certain fruits and the Jamaican duties being reduced or abolished on various articles imported from the United States.

No Corn For Distribution.

Washington, July 10.—The secretary of agriculture has been appealed to on behalf of the flood sufferers of Texas, to send a supply of corn for their use. He has been compelled to decline, as the department has no appropriation for such a purpose. Secretary Wilson is sending all the growing garden seeds the department has in store with the hope that they may be planted in time to be productive this season. A telegram to the secretary from the chairman of the Houston relief committee estimates the number of planters affected at 25,000. He says they are in great distress.

Names Not Not Allowed.

Washington, July 10.—General Otis cables the following: Two veteran regiments assured. Will enlist about 1,000. You can appoint 11 second lieutenants for First and nine for Second regiment to recruits in the United States, all other offices filled. Regiments styled First and Second Philippine United States veteran volunteer infantry. Adjutant General Corbin cabled General Otis that these designations could not be allowed for the Philippine regiments and in order to save confusion they would be called the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh volunteer infantry.

Final Round of Chess.

London, July 10.—The thirtieth and final round of the International Chess Masters' tournament was begun when the seventh round of the Berger system served for the pairing for the contestants. The usual adjournment took place at 4:30 p. m., when the condition of affairs was as follows: Janowski had a lost game against Steinitz, Lasker had beaten Schlechter, Blackburn had a won game against Cohn, Bird and Mason adjourned their game in an even position, as did Tinsley and Tchigorin. of Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Completed by Sale of Road.

Cincinnati, O., July 10.—The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railroad was sold to A. R. Bacon, George Hoadley, Jr., and J. Chauncey Hoffman as a purchasing committee for the security holders for $3,510,000.

The upset price under the order of the federal court was $2,000,000 for the Ohio division, $1,000,000 for the Mississippi division, and $500,000 for what is known as the Springfield division, running from Beardstown and Shawneetown.

President Bacon bid on these parcels separately and then added $10,000 for them as a whole when General Cowen, clerk of the federal court, knocked the property down to them. This purchasing committee at once transferred the property to the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railroad company, which will be organized with E. R. Mason as president and William M. Greene as vice president and general manager.

The only changes made are in the name of the old organization from that of railroad to railway. The relations continue the same as heretofore with the Baltimore & Ohio railway.

Mrs. Harkness Gift.

Cleveland, July 10.—Mrs. M. V. Harkness, of New York, has given $30,000 toward the erection of a chapel for the college of women of Western Reserve university. This is the second large gift Mrs. Harkness has made. She gave $50,000 three years ago to found a Biblical chair in memory of her daughter, Florence Harkness Severance. The growth in the number of students of Western Reserve university has rendered necessary the immediate erection of the chapel.

Want an Appropriation.

Havana, July 10.—The board of agriculture of Puerto Principe has appointed Senors Cardenas and Luaces a committee to visit Washington and ask for an appropriation for the province to enable it to purchase farming implements. The Manzanillo rural police have killed Robinson Arito, an outlaw.

During the Spanish war he was on duty in Cuba as brigade quartermaster at the headquarters of the Fifth corps. Captain Plummer was recommended for brevet for gallantry in action at Santiago.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS.

Candidates and Delegates Arriving at Lexington For Convention.

Lexington, Ky., July 10.—Candidates and delegates to the Republican state convention are arriving.

Attorney General Taylor seems to have enough instructed votes to win the gubernatorial nomination, although Stone and Pratt leaders insist that Taylor's strength is overestimated. The opposition leaders say that the fight against Taylor is not personal, but is based upon the claim that he is not the strongest candidate at this time when thousands of Democrats are believed to be ready to vote the Republican ticket.

The only hope of the opposition to Taylor seems to be to unite on some such man as John W. Yerkes, member of the Republican national committee, who is popular with the rank and file of the party and a most acceptable man to Democrats. Contests for minor offices on the ticket have not commenced to take shape, but a host of candidates is springing up.

Flint Glass Workers Meet.

Muncie, Ind., July 10.—At 10 a. m. the international convention of flint glass workers formally opened with about 200 delegates and several hundred other glass men present. A parade moved through our streets. Immediately after the parade an outdoor gathering assembled in Heekin park, where they were addressed by Mayor Tuhey. The principal part of the business will probably be transacted during the first week. The question of amalgamating all branches of the organized glass trade will be one of the principal things to be attended to by the convention.

Meeting May Be Postponed.

Washington, July 10.—Unless Senator Fairbanks, while in Alaska, succeeded in finding a satisfactory solution of the vexed boundary question and brings with him the material for the arrangement of a modus vivendi, the high joint commission will not meet in August. It is conjectured here that the senator, though himself a member of the commission, has, during his Alaskan trip, been unable to acquaint himself with the unsatisfactory state of the negotiations between Mr. Choate and Lord Salisbury, respecting the arrangement of a modus.

Death of Charles Graham.

New York, July 10.—Charles Graham, the ballad writer, is dead in Bellevue hospital. In spite of the great popularity of his songs he is said to have died penniless. INDICATIONS.—Fair to-night; increasing cloudiness Wednesday.

STATE AUDITOR STONE insists that he is still in the race for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. General Taylor only smiles and winks the other eye.

THE Rev. John M. Crowe, of Louisville, declined to ride in the carriage with the Hon. William Jennings Bryan at a Parkersburg, W. Va., parade. Mr. Crowe can be put down as a goldbug of the rankest color.

THE Republican State convention will convene at Lexington to-morrow. General Taylor seems to have things so well in hand that there isn't much prospect of a row. In fact the Bradleyites have raised the white flag, and are suing for peace.

If the warring Republican factions "get together" at Lexington this week, as now seems probable, they may be able to give the Democrats some sort of a fight in the coming campaign. But what Senator Goebel will do to them will be a plenty.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Captain John C. Hopkins, of Catlettsburg, Spoken of as a Candidate For Congress.

[Enquirer.] Captain John C. Hopkins, of Catlettsburg, Ky., ex-Mayor and influential Democratic politician, was at the Gibson House Sunday with a number of good fellows from just over the line. The Republican convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor to make the race against Goebel was the subject of discussion, and with reference to what the outcome may be Captain Hopkins said:

"The Republican candidates are Taylor, Stone, Pratt, Belknap and Yerkes. Taylor in all probability will be the nominee, in which case he will be beaten 50,000. If Yerkes should be the choice of the convention he would make it warm for Goebel from start to finish, but he will not be nominated.

"I am for Goebel, although when he was in the Legislature he went out of his way to try to force the passage of a bill ostensibly general in its nature, but in reality aimed solely at me, and he knew it. He had given his promise that he would support it, but he supported it with unnecessary vigor.

"However, I harbor no ill will toward him. He is the biggest and smartest of Kentuckians. His worst enemies must admit that, and he will give the State a model administration, one that cannot be corrupted. I was not an original Goebel man, but I am for him now earnestly to the end."

Captain Hopkins may not have Congressional aspirations, but his friends are bent on sending him to Congress, next time, to represent the Ninth district. Leastwise, they say so. The Captain heard them, but their words did not arouse any vanity in him evidently. Mason County is all that he requires to secure a nomination, and Dr. H. K. Adanson, of Maysville, promised him that, conditionally, the condition not being hard to comply with.

International Convention B. Y. P. U., Richmond, Va.

For the above occasion the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets, Maysville to Richmond, at rate of one fare, $13.30. Tickets on sale July 11th, 12th and 13th. Return limit July 31st and August 15th. Stop overs granted on return trip at stations east of Kanawha Falls. Side trip excursions—Washington and return, $3.50; Old Point and return, $2.30; Norfolk and return, $2.50; Virginia Beach and return, $3; New York and return, via Norfolk and Old Dominion Line steamer, including meals and stateroom on steamer, $13.

HANNA'S MAN.

The Big Boss is Running the Republican Machine in Kentucky—Taylor His Choice for Governor.

[Washington Post.]

The news discounting the result of the forthcoming Kentucky Republican State convention is interesting only so far as it shows how excellently and accurately the Hanna machine is working.

Attorney-General Taylor, the avowed Hanna candidate, will win in a walk in the convention, as the racing fraternity of Kentucky would say. There are two other candidates in the field, one of whom, Auditor Stone, has the backing of Governor Bradley and the State machine. But the Hanna candidate has left the Bradley candidate so far behind that Stone will not get a "place," to again lapse into the dialect of the turf cult. We do not know why Mr. Taylor was lucky enough to be picked to represent the interests of the Hanna machine in a contest that is strictly local and of extremely dubious result. We can be permitted to surmise, however, that Mr. Taylor's particular official connection for three years with the machinery of the State Government of Kentucky has afforded him an opportunity to show the syndicate politicians represented by Hanna that he "knows a hawk from a heronshaw" when it comes to dealing with corporations. But this is beside the main purpose.

The situation in Kentucky is only another reminder of the significant fact that in every contest of importance within the party since the Republican national machine was syndicated and perfected under Hanna's magic touch the hand of Hanna not only has been thrust deep into the melee, but also that the Hanna side has won. The significance of it is obvious. It means that the new Republican regime is centralizing the politics of the country as well as its Government and its wealth. It means that the time-honored system of party primaries and conventions has become mere forms and hollow mockeries. It means that nominees and platforms are dictated from the party's central organization. It means that political wisdom flows not from the aggregate intelligence of the party into the central organization, but that it proceeds from the will of the party boss.

The day is not very far gone when the Governor of a State represented power and influence in his party councils, because he represented an organized sentiment behind him. Hannaism is destroying this. Republican Governors who will be elected within the next two years will represent nothing to their party, will add nothing to the wisdom of its counsels. They will add only a pliable strength to the machine controlled by Hanna. They must of necessity dispense the patronage as he dictates. They will be compelled to recommend legislation at the behest of the syndicated party central organization. They will be forced to administer the laws in crises between capital and labor as expedient moves Hanna.

The picture is not overdrawn. If they but dared, the retiring Governors of Ohio and Kentucky could testify to its truth. They have been crushed under the screws of political contraction and have felt the sharp twists applied to them by Hanna.

Against such a situation the Democratic ticket ought to win easily in Kentucky next autumn. Despite the unnecessary and un-Democratic anti-expansion plank inserted in the platform, Democrats in Kentucky cannot afford to vote against Mr. Goebel and for the Republican candidate, because in so doing they are only helping to strengthen the oppressive Hanna machine.

NO LIQUOR ON TAP.

Nothing of the Kind at Senator Goebel's Headquarters During the Recent State Convention.

[Ewing Enquirer.]

We desire to make a statement in justice to the man who has been so bitterly opposed by a few ministers in the county.

At the headquarters of William Goebel at the Galt House in Louisville during the late disgraceful meeting of the Democrats of the State there was not a bottle, case, keg or barrel of whisky, wine, beer or brandy in his rooms; nor was there a drunken man in his delegation from his home, Kenton County; while there was an inexhaustible quantity of what was termed by those who used it "the best," in all the rest of the headquarters we visited.

We do not say this to injure another, nor as a slur at the party, but we speak of it to remind those who should be moral teachers that they must not too hastily judge.

A SPECIAL from New York says: "Reports of progress made in the scheme for the consolidation of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Big Four and rather suggestive activity in the stocks by insiders' brokers has led to advances in the stocks of both. It is well known that the Vanderbilts and J. P. Morgan have been working for some time to bring about the consolidation of the two roads, and twice before the deal has been upon the verge of completion. In fact, it has been thought for some time past that the merger is all arranged and ready to be made operative. The street has a story that President M. E. Ingalls is to retire from the executive chairs of both roads which he now occupies."

At 75c., a genuine money-saver. No dressing to deceive you about the quality. Put on your spectacles for close examination; they will stand the test. Hemmed, ready for use. Bleached to snowy whiteness. A reduction means nothing if the quality is reduced. It's a had bargain to pay even a little for poor goods. We're selling these spreads at reduced price, but their value is whole. A July trade stir we hope will interest you.

Jim Allen's Prize Poem

[Cynthiana Democrat.]

A bug known to us scientific fellows as the melanolestes picipes has made its appearance. It does not, as its name would indicate, feed on melons at picnics, but bites the lips of sleeping persons and causes great pain thereby. It is a kisser from 'way back. The New York Journal has offered a prize of $5 for the best poem on this bug. The Journal will please remit by check or money order; stamps not taken.

A kissing bug came from Carlisle

To rest in this city awhile.

He took two little sips

From a maid's rosy lips,

And the contrast produced a broad smile.

He thought it a trick very slick

To give the lips of a young man a lick.

But after he sank

His bill in the tank

He reeled away awfully at hic!

The auditorium was filled last night with an enthusiastic crowd. Wilson and Clayton in their sketch evoked much applause. Frank is the same pleasing vocalist and his wife, Miss Clayton, sang several up-to-date selections. Lorraine and Howell appeared in two sketches and made a good impression. Mr. Lorraine's "Silence and Fun" was very clever while Miss Howell's dancing is most pleasing; 15 cents pays car fare and admission. Reserved seats and admission tickets on sale at Nelson's.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50c. at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

Beauty is born in the blood. Beauty is more than "skin deep." It is blood deep. When the blood is tainted by disease the flesh will feel it and the skin will show it. Sallow or muddy complexion, pimples, blotches and eruptions are only the surface signs of impure blood. Face washes, lotions, complexion powders, may palliate the evils but they cannot cure the disease. The only cure is to cleanse the blood of the poisonous matter which is the cause of the outbreak in the flesh and skin. Impure blood can be absolutely purified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Its effect on flesh and skin is marked. Sores heal and disappear. The skin becomes smooth, and regains its natural color. The eyes brighten and sparkle, the whole body is radiant with the brightness and beauty of health. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assists the action of the "Discovery," by cleansing the system of clogging matter.

Pay For Full Times.

Washington, July 10.—Acting Comptroller has decided that state naval militiamen, who entered into the service of the United States navy during the war with Spain, are entitled to pay for the time they accepted their appointments either by mail or by entering upon duty and not from the date of their commissions.

Suppress Riots.

Windsor, Ontario, July 10.—Forty local militiamen left for London in response to a call from the district officer for troops to aid in quelling the street car riots there. It is believed that the presence of the troops will hold the rioters in check without any actual fighting.

A Tart Retort.

The plaintiff was undergoing a rather sharp examination from the defendant's counsel. The case was one of damages claimed on account of severe bodily injuries by the plaintiff on a railway, due, the plaintiff claimed, to the negligence of the defendant railway company's servants. Mr. C., the railway company's counsel, was noted for his overbearing manner in examining witnesses and endeavoring to disconcert them. This witness, however, determined not to be confused by his opponent's counsel.

After becoming thoroughly provoked by the attacks of the man of law he remonstrated. "Mr. C.," said he, "I am an invalid. I cannot allow you to question me in this manner. It is a positive injury to my nervous system, which is at best in a shattered condition. I shall have to refuse to answer your questions unless you put them in a different manner. I am troubled on account of the injury received on the railway with sclerosis of the spinal cord. At this minute I can see you double, and you know by experience it is generally enough to upset a man to see you once."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Famous Floggers.

Among schoolmasters whose names have come down to posterity with the dubious reputation of great floggers Dr. Busby of Westminster school is the generally acknowledged chief.

Of him it is recorded that one of his head boys having insulted a young French viscount, who came to the school to demand satisfaction, he flogged the viscount first for the bloodthirsty intentions and next his friend who was the bearer of his challenge.

Dr. Valpy, too, who edited an edition of the classics, was a potent wielder of the rod. Archdeacon Groon, who was a pupil of his, tells a story in illustration of his prowess. One of the boys had been flogged by the redoubtable dominie, and the lad's father came to complain.

"Sir," said Valpy to him, "I flogged your son because he richly deserved it. If he again deserves it, I shall flog him again. And," rising, "If you come here, sir, interfering with my duty, I shall flog you."

The parent fled.—London Mail.

A Little Bit of Salt.

Every child needs a little bit of salt, and in almost every food it is well to put some, not only for the taste, but for its value in digesting the food. It is a notable fact that all animals welcome salt occasionally, and, like human beings, pine when there is a lack of it. In Holland, some generations ago, it is said to have been the custom to punish criminals by allowing no food but bread without salt. The consequence was the blood became depraved, they became infested with worms and died miserably. Blood contains a large percentage of salt, and no one can be healthy without it. An experienced physician has stated that if a strong solution of salt and water be injected into the veins of a person dying with cholera the patient will be roused from his stupor, and occasionally it has led to recovery.—Ledger Monthly.

A Pretty Little Story.

The prettiest child story that I have seen lately is in French. A mother tells her little girl that because she has been naughty she will not kiss her for a week. Before two days have gone by the child's lips hunger so for her mother's kiss that she begs her not to punish her any more. The mother says: "No, my dear, I told you that I should not kiss you, and I must keep my word." "But, mamma, mamma," says the little girl, "would it be breaking your word if you should kiss me just once tonight when I'm asleep?"—Boston Transcript.

Not to Be Sat Down On.

"One of those little chickens won't mind the old hen at all. It runs about by itself and doesn't pay any attention to her clucks." "I don't really blame the poor little thing. It's one that was hatched in an incubator."—Chicago Tribune.

A Misleading Statement.

Chicago, July 10.—The press has received a telegram from Senator Fairbanks, who is in Portland, Or., stating that the dispatch sent from Tacoma about the Canadian boundary line in Alaska was inaccurate and misleading.

Overflowed Their Bank.

Troppau, Austrian Silesia, July 10.—In consequence of the recent storms the rivers in eastern Silesia are overflowing their banks and considerable damage has been done to the crops.

Potsdam, Prussia, July 10.—Dr. Von Achenbach, the governor of the province of Brandenburg, is dead.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I now can sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c. and $1. CLOSING DAY

Of the International Christian Endeavor at Detroit.

Detroit, July 10.—The closing day of the International Christian Endeavor was the busiest day of the busy week.

The tendencies of the '99 gathering along educational and other practical lines have caused this convention to be called the educational convention. Its general trend is conceded to have been to broaden as well as to inspire the people rather than have led them toward narrow forms of spirituality or intolerant religious views. The last quiet hour was large attended. Missions was the topic in both the great tents at the morning meetings, Foreign Missions in Tent Endeavor, Home Missions in Tent Williston. In the former meeting the foreign missionaries present were introduced to the great audience by "Father Endeavorer" Clark. The first address was by Rev. Dr. A. McLean, of Cincinnati. His topic was "The Great Need of Missions."
